

Pendle Hill Volunteers

Pendle Hill Volunteers assist us across the Pendle Hill Landscape Partnership area with outdoor tasks, predominantly practical, conservation based task. These tasks may be linked to a specific PHLP project or a site of interest, and could include task such as footpath repairs, woodland management, invasive species management, tree planting etc.

This role involves:

- Assisting with practical tasks, predominantly outdoors, across the PHLP area
- Representing the Pendle Hill Landscape Partnership at public events and/or activities.
- Supporting fellow volunteers
- Working as a team.
- Assisting with a range of different activities, using different hand tools and working with different volunteers.
- Working with other volunteers in accordance with the health and safety policy, safeguarding and other volunteering polices.

What's in it for you?

- Becoming part of a friendly and dedicated team
- Gaining new practical conservation skills and experience
- Helping to conserve the wonderful Pendle Hill landscape
- Meeting new people and improving your communication skills
- Benefiting from getting involved in activity in the outdoors.

This role will suit people who:

- Are aged 18 or above (unless accompanied by a parent/guardian)
- Love being outdoors and are happy to get stuck in with different practical tasks in all weather conditions.
- Are keen to learn new skills and develop knowledge.
- Are reliable, approachable and friendly
- Work well in a team

Location of volunteer activity:	The Pendle Hill Volunteers get involved with tasks and activity across the Pendle Hill Landscape Partnership Area. This roughly includes the area between Gisburn down to Whalley, and across from Clitheroe to Barrowford/Nelson.
Time commitment:	As much as you want to give! The Pendle Hill Volunteers meet at least twice a month, on the first Sunday and third Wednesday. Other tasks on other dates may also be organised dependent on task load and season. A volunteering day usually lasts from 09.30 until 15.30/16.00, but where appropriate volunteers can just attend for part of the day.
Responsible to:	Countryside Access Officer; Community Engagement Officer
Training offered:	A range of training opportunities will be provided throughout the 4 years of the PHLP, which will include first aid, skills training opportunities and leadership training opportunities.
Expenses:	Out-of-pocket travel costs, following the Volunteer Expenses Policy.

If you are interested in this role please call 01200 42042 or email volunteer@pendle-hill-lp.co.uk. All tasks start with a full induction, health and safety talk, tool talk and instructions on the task, however we are also available for you to come in for an informal induction before coming along to a task if you prefer

The Pendle Hill Volunteers mailing list is used to inform you of details of future tasks, as well as any other events or activities related to the Pendle Hill Landscape Partnership.

